

1989

Pride continues to be important to me in terms of making sure that we don't forget that prejudice still exists and we need to stand tall with our brothers and sisters to make sure our voices continue to be heard.

Cllr Richard Porter, 30, Executive Member for Regeneration and Economic Development. Out since 1989

1990

"that night I went to Heaven nightclub. I remember coping off and feeling fantastic, no shame, no guilt, just one huge hangover the next day, but I didn't care."

Anon

