

1991

What was fabulous was the sense of joy of being with hundreds of others who could "Sing because we were proud to be gay (and lesbian)"
Linda Bellos

1992

My first Pride as an out Lesbian was in London in 1992, when I was 40 years old. I was so excited that I ran up and down, blowing a bugle. Thousands of people lined the pavements, waving back and shouting encouragement.
Caroline Jones, company director, community activist, mother and grandmother.
