

2001

I remember being overwhelmed at the number of LGBT people in one space at the same time all having a fantastic time

Anon

2002

"I should have known that the best way to get myself outed and on the front page of Capital Gay was to march next to Jackie Forster clutching the Sappho banner." Kirsten Hearn, disabled lesbian activist outed by Capital Gay in 1983 with the outrageous headline of "Banner bearer leads blind woman" ... as though I wasn't there willingly! not that I wasn't thinking of slithering out anyway ..

